1,000 PUPILS STOPPED IN ROOM SCHOOLS

DELAYED REPAIRS IN OTHER BUILDINGS DISTURB FALL OPENING SESSIONS.

Over 2,000 pupils were today refused entrance to the public schools or were forced into buildings under conditions which made study impossible.

It is charged by Finance Commissioners Kennedy and Chairman Atwood of the school board that this condition is due to neglect and delay on the part of the school house commission.

At the primary school in Tyler street today, some 200 pupils, ranging from the first to the eighth year, were sent home, as the building, which are said to have been in the hands of the school board, was not completed for use.

Seven hundred pupils were turned away at the Victoria memorial school, corner of Franklin and Boston streets, West End, because of unsatisfactory conditions.

About 100 pupils were turned away at the primary school in the West End, because the building was not ready for use.

Two hundred pupils were sent away from the Washington school, North End, because of unsatisfactory conditions.

DARE NOT TEST SON IS DEAD

Fact of Tragic Killing of Joseph D. Galvin Kept from Aged Parent.

WAS VICTIM OF RUNAWAY

Fearing that the shock would be fatal to her, the relatives of Joseph D. Galvin, who was killed last night in a run-away accident in Dorchester, have not dared to tell the aged mother of the victim about the tragedy. The old lady is in her eightieth year and is constantly under the care of a nurse. She is a very feeble invalid.

Mr. Galvin, who was one of the best known business men of the city, and a brother of Thomas F. Galvin, died last night at the residence of his wife, Mrs. D. Galvin, in company with his son, Joseph D. Galvin, who was driving in his home at No. 111 Washington street, Dorchester, shortly after six o'clock last night. They had left Mr. Galvin's place of business a short time before. The horse that they had was a stallion.

As they reached the railroad bridge near the Mount Bowdoin station a train passed under the bridge. This frightened the horse and he bolted.

The animal dashed between a heavy door and the curb, near Kilian street, and the fatal injury was inflicted in a few moments. The horse was killed and Galvin was thrown with considerable force against a wall. The father was killed instantly. The son was killed a few minutes after the father. His body was taken to the City Hospital.

Mr. Galvin was born in Boston, and was educated in the city and in Europe. He was a partner in the firm of J. & C. Galvin, and was also a partner in the firm of J. & C. Galvin, and was also a partner in the firm of J. & C. Galvin.

White Soap—Blue Wrapper

The best naphtha soap is P. & G. Naphtha Soap. Remember the name.

But if you should happen to forget it, remember this description: The white naphtha soap in the blue wrapper. P. & G. Naphtha Soap is used by women who are anxious that everything about them shall be as clean as soap and water can make it; but who don't propose to stick to old-fashioned methods when new ones are better.

P. & G. Naphtha is a new kind of soap. The method of using it is new. The results are new.

Boiling of clothes is entirely done away with. The hard work over the washboard is reduced to a minimum. And because it is no longer necessary to keep a fire going all day long in order to heat the water, the room in which you wash is as cool as you care to have it.

Think of that—working, on washday, in a cool room. P. & G. Naphtha Soap is sold by good grocers everywhere.

The Price is 5 Cents a Cake.
